

Everyday Is like Christmas

If every day were Christmas

And gifts kept coming our way,

Our homes would be piled with toys

And all the games we could play.

Yet every day is a gift

That our Heavenly Father sends,

So let's thank Him for His love,

For our homes and our family friends.