

Our Sacrifice

Lorna McKelvie

He broke the chains and set us free....

That day He won the victory.

Now in heaven He reigns on High

But He'll be back...a second time...

He's coming then to take us home...

In a blaze of glory all His own...

And there we'll worship at His feet...

When on that day we finally meet...

Our savior...our sacrifice...

Our all in All...
